ABOUT THIS TRAINING COURSE

Are you an aid worker or are you considering getting involved in aid projects? Join us in Brussels for an intensive 3-day course on 'Managing Solidarity Projects'. Learn how to design, manage and evaluate large-scale humanitarian and social projects, while developing the strategic skills needed to maximise your impact. Whether you work on national or international initiatives, this course will get you ready for the complex challenges of managing solidarity projects.

Brussels is waiting for you to take your commitment to the next level.

STRENGTHS OF THE TRAINING COURSE

- Case studies
- Practical exercises
- Group work

BY ATTENDING THIS TRAINING, YOU WILL GET

- An HPass digital badge, a quality label recognised by the humanitarian community (subject to obtaining the average)
- A Bioforce attestation of competence (subject to obtaining the average)

SKILLS TO BE COVERED

By attending this open course, you will understand and apply appropriate approaches and tools to effectively manage a solidarity project. And more specifically, you will know how to:

- Identify appropriate needs assessment methodologies and data collection tools, according to the context and the evaluation of terms of reference
- Describe the main steps in the design of multi-sectoral programmes and projects
- Design and use the Logical Framework based on the Logical Framework Analysis
- Design a monitoring and evaluation framework for the project, selecting the appropriate tools and indicators
- Choose relevant criteria in order to develop objectives for an ex-post evaluation (end of project evaluation)
